

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued the past week by John S. Barr, Clerk of Courts of Jefferson county:

I. R. Oliver and Elizabeth Hamm, both of Punxsutawney.

L. W. Duckett, of Fairmount City, and Elizabeth M. Richards, of Johnsonburg.

John B. Farr and Martha J. Buck, both of Ringgold township.

William Whinidg, of Lindsey, and Elizabeth Ann Jones, of Horatio.

Daniel Spare, of Pansy, and Ellen Shaffer, of Stanton.

Jonas Buckheite and Lettie Brown, both of Panic.

James Sage, of Marienville, and Jennie Pierce, of Kalotown.

James L. Long and Ella T. Campbell, both of Punxsutawney.

Alex. W. Kennedy, of Walston, and Laura M. Campbell, of Big Run.

Paradise.

Lee Sheesley has been on the sick list the past week.

Edward Syphrit is talking of going west in the spring to seek a fortune.

James Sheesley returned home from the back woods last Saturday to visit friends.

One of our students said the other day, that "if some of our girls could smile at school like they can when they get on the streets in Reynoldsville, it would be fun to go to school. But it is not this way."

If the habit of prevarication is hereditary, then Ananias must have many lineal descendants. Of all the vices not punishable by law, lying is the most prevalent. The theory that drunkenness is a disease has long obtained in scientific circles, and now a St. Louis doctor expresses the opinion that lying, or the inability to tell the truth, also comes within the professional province of the physician. Dr. Welch would treat the habitual liar much as he would the insane patient. The base of his trouble is the nerves, says the doctor, and rest and tonics, with good nursing, are required. Lying is hereditary, says the doctor, and the best way to avoid becoming liars, it would seem, is to exercise some care in the choice of parents. As this is impossible in the present infant state of scientific discovery, the next best thing to do is to live near some prevarication expert, and on the appearance of the first symptoms of the dread disease rush to his office and receive timely treatment.—Pittsburg Daily News.

There are a few people in Reynoldsville who have become such professional liars that a prevarication sanitarium would do them no good.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all other diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on H. A. Stoke, Druggist, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

A Married Man's Musings.

Well, it was a woman that saw the first snake, anyhow.

Now is the time to begin saving up to pay for the presents your wife will give you Christmas.

A fellow never knows that any other creature than man wears a wig until he gets married.

The worst of it is that when a man's wife threatens never to speak a word to him again she doesn't keep her promise.

The trouble with this mistletoe business is that a fellow's liable to kiss his mother-in-law by mistake.

There should be something in the marriage service about promising not to use a husband's razor to cut corns with.

I believe I'll give my wife a dictionary of synonyms for a Christmas present. I get so tired hearing the same old words when I come home late after sitting up with a sick friend.

Our home is run like congress. Mother-in-law is the overwhelming majority, I am the helpless minority. Angelina and Sophronia are the committee on obtaining appropriations, and my wife is the speaker.—Pittsburg Daily News.

1878. Fire Insurance. 1899.

John Trudgen, Solicitor, Reynoldsville; Thomas Keys, Solicitor, Brockwayville, with N. G. Pinney, Brookville. 12 large Companies represented. Solid Indemnity.

A Common Danger.

If you have ever had a cold which you permitted to "wear away" it may interest you to know that it was a dangerous proceeding. Every cold and cough which is neglected paves the way for consumption, bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. Otto's Cure, the famous German throat and lung remedy, will cure any cough or cold and save you from consumption. Call on H. Alex. Stoke and get a sample bottle free. Large size 25c. and 50c.

The Punxsutawney Spirit says it is probable that the next legislature will change the form of the ballot. A very much smaller ballot is possible by running the names of the candidates all in one column, designating the office for which they are running by a headline, and placing the name of the party represented after the name of each candidate.
